

HOME SMART HOME

IN TODAY'S ALWAYS-ON WORLD, LIFESTYLES ARE BECOMING INCREASINGLY DIGITAL. VOLUMES OF DIGITAL PHOTOS, MUSIC, AND VIDEOS ARE STORED ON MULTIPLE PCS AND SHARED THROUGH THE INTERNET, NETWORKS, AND ONLINE APPLICATIONS.

So how do you begin living the digital life? What do you need to make the transformation, and why will it make your life easier?

HP believes passionately in making it simple and easy for you to adopt and manage a high-definition lifestyle. Whether at home or on the go, you can experience your movies, photos, music, videos, and more.

That's why in 2007 HP brought to life HP SmartHome—a real-life home that demonstrates an affordable and compelling digital experience. The home shows how you can easily enjoy your favorite digital media and manage home life conveniences with complete personalization using a range of products that are readily available in today's market.

The HP SmartHome is built on the fundamental principle of open standards. HP has also partnered with some of the biggest industry brands to deliver an end-to-end digital experience. From distributed audio to lighting control to intelligent appliances—everything is seamlessly and easily integrated in the house.

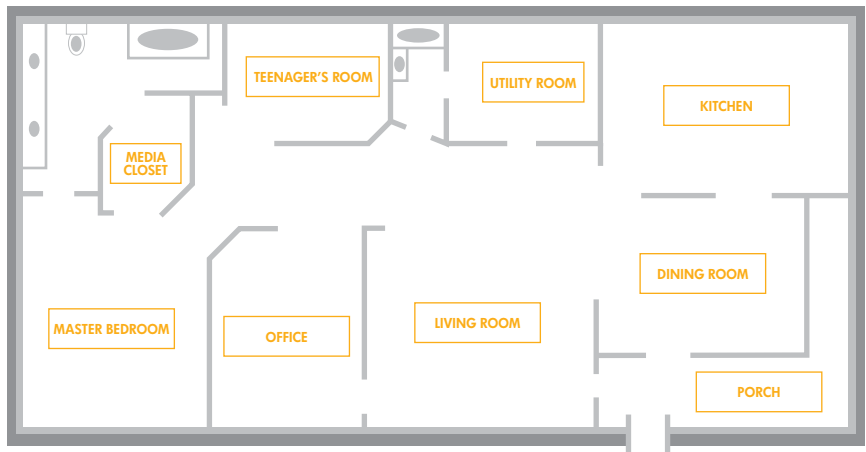

WITH THE HP SMARTHOME, HP SHOWS YOU HOW EASY IT IS TO START LIVING THE DIGITAL LIFE.

ENTERTAINMENT IS PERSONAL.
